

MA in Theology and World Religions Scholarships School of Theology, Philosophy, and Music

Dublin City University

The School of Theology, Philosophy, and Music is pleased to offer scholarships for the MA in Theology and World Religions for the academic year 2022-23.

These scholarships are funded by the Mater Dei Scholarship and Grant Committee. The scholarships cover partial fees for the part-time programme. There are:

- i. Six “half fees” part-time scholarships, to be paid out over two years.
- ii. These awards consist of €4,000, which leaves €4,000 in fees to be paid by the recipient, over two years (that is €2,000 per academic year)

Applications are welcome from those who have an initial degree in Theology, Religious Studies, Religious Education, or a related field of study in the Humanities, such as history, politics, philosophy, psychology, literature, or cultural studies. Applicants must have received a final award of at least Second-Class Honours (2:1). Applicants who are currently completing an undergraduate degree are welcome to apply. Shortlisted candidates may be interviewed.

The closing date for applications for the scholarships is Friday 1 July, 11:59pm (2022). To apply, please send the following to Dr Joseph Rivera, Programme Chair of the MA in Theology and World Religions (joseph.rivera@dcu.ie).

- a letter of interest outlining your qualifications, your reasons for applying for the MA in Theology at DCU (maximum two pages, single space), and the name of an academic reference. Send directly to me via email (joseph.rivera@dcu.ie).
- Confirmation of application to the programme on the online system.

How to apply online? Please go here and created an online account:

<https://dcuie.elluciancrmrecruit.com/Apply/Account/Login?ReturnUrl=%2fApply%2f>

Upon doing so, select PG taught programmes. The Programme is code specific: DC693 is full-time (one year) and DC-694 is part-time (2 years). Be sure to select DC-694.

Enquiries may be directed to: Dr Joseph Rivera (joseph.rivera@dcu.ie)