CHILD SAFEGUARDING STATEMENT

1. ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN

The Gospel teaches the importance of ensuring that the Catholic Church community is a warm, welcoming and safe place for children. Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it. (Mark 10:14-15). Children are gifts from God, to be cherished and recognised for the joyful contribution they make as valued members of the Church. Our challenge is to follow the example of Jesus in cherishing them. Safeguarding is key to this important task and should be seen, not as a burden, but as an opportunity to embrace and encourage ministry to children, following the example of Jesus Christ. The Archdiocese of Dublin pledges to safeguard children and young people from harm and to support them in their development as valued and integral members of the Catholic Church in Ireland. The Church's ministry will be inclusive and will uphold their rights. Consistent with Gospel values, and with civil and criminal law, those who minister will do so with dignity and integrity, honouring their calling to ensure that children and young people are welcomed, cherished and protected, following the example set by Jesus. The Archdiocese of Dublin is the largest diocese in Ireland, comprising 196 parishes across the counties of Dublin, Wicklow, Kildare, Laois, Wexford and Carlow. Through our parishes and agencies, we engage with children in a variety of ways for the purposes of religious instruction. Activities which involve children include: Attendance at church services; Sacramental preparation; Participation in ministries such as altar service, family Mass groups and choirs; Participation in youth groups; Participation in retreats and pilgrimages.

2. OUR PRINCIPLES TO SAFEGUARD CHILDREN FROM HARM

- The safety and welfare of children is everyone's responsibility.
- The best interests of children attending Diocesan Churches, Parishes and activities are paramount.
- All children, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, ability, race or ethnicity, will be safeguarded by providing a safe, child-centred environment.
- Children have a right to dignity and respect.
- Children have a right to be heard, listened to and taken seriously.
- Parents/carers have the right to be consulted and involved in matters concerning their children. We require parental/guardian consent for the involvement of children in Church activities.
- The Child Safeguarding in the Archdiocese of Dublin: Policies, Procedures and Good Practice Guidelines 2023 and Diocesan Safeguarding Strategy (2023-26), fully reflect the provisions of the Children First Act 2015 and the best practice outlined in Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017).
